

She's smiling because she has opportunities
as global as our business

More than a Career in Travel & Tourism

TUI GROUP, the world's leading tourism company, is currently seeking outstanding graduates for the International Graduate Leadership Programme. This 18 months experience is open to talented and passionate individuals from around the world and will give you amazing exposure our international company.

Once on board you'll have a wide variety of international assignments across our business sectors. Our objective is to develop future commercial leaders for roles in TUI GROUP, to develop your business and management skills and provide experience in all aspects of our business

What you can look forward to:

- An exciting mix of day-to-day business and project work - enjoy what you do!
- 3 month assignments – working in our different businesses
- 2 weeks in one of our main holiday destinations as a representative to engage with our customers
- 8 weeks leadership assignment in a destination – experience leading a team of tour representatives
- Working with senior managers at different locations across the world
- Tailored Personal Development – You'll have a mentor, workshops and continual assessments
- 38.000 Euro per annum with additional support with expenses associated with international assignments

What we're looking for in you:

- Minimum of 2:1 degree (or equivalent) from a university or a business school ideally in Business Administration, International Management or Economics
- English language skills to business standard and fluency in one other European language
- Minimum of 3 months international experience (work experience, internship or study)
- Minimum of 6 months commercial work experience
- Flexibility to be internationally mobile
- An analytical mind, a customer-oriented approach, good team skills and a passion for tourism with strong leadership potential

Our International Graduate Leadership Programme starts in September (Application closing date in March) and March (Application closing date in September) each year. Discover more and apply online on for the March 2018 intake: www.tuiinternationalgraduates.com